Additional Questions

Elected Positions:

Executive Chair: Describe any leadership roles you have had in the past. The Executive Chair runs the board meetings and is in charge of spirit at National Convention. How would you handle these duties?

Parliamentarian: The Parliamentarian is in charge of making changes to the constitution and running the state election. The CJCL Constitution represents all the principles that regulate the organization; describe some ways you would improve the constitution. Do you have any suggestions on how to run or change the election process? List any other qualities that you will bring to this position.

Historian: Describe how you would capture the spirit of CJCL as the Historian. Recently, the CJCL scrapbook has been switched over so that it is now electronic rather than on paper. Describe the extent of your computer abilities and how you will use technology without losing the artistic and creative aspect of the scrapbook.

Recording Secretary: Being the Secretary requires that you remain active during the board meetings and that you send out the minutes to everyone present. Describe the skills that you possess that best qualify you for Secretary.

Northern Representative: What experience do you have in running events and gatherings? Give a detailed explanation of your ideas for Ludi and how you would collaborate with your sponsor in carrying them out. In addition, how do you plan on persuading Northern California schools in forming JCL chapters?

Southern Representative: What experience do you have in running events and gatherings? Give a detailed explanation of your ideas for SCRAM and how you would collaborate with your sponsor in carrying them out. In addition, how do you plan on persuading Southern California schools in forming JCL chapters?

Appointed Positions:

Nuntius Editor: Have you had experience in putting together a newspaper before, especially in laying out pages? If so, please describe. Attach any sample work that you have done, if applicable, and what role you played in putting it together.

Webmaster: How long have you been working on websites and what qualifies you to be a Webmaster? What programs do you use or are familiar with? How often do you plan to update the site? Please indicate the addresses of websites you have created thus far.
