Personal Statement

Please compose a personal statement detailing your involvement in the Junior Classical League, your qualifications for statewide office in general, and your goals for the coming year your prospective office. Limit your statement to 800 words in length.

Additional Questions

Please limit your response to 400 words in length.

Elected Offices:

1st Vice President: The First Vice-President is charged with expanding the reach of the California Junior Classical League. How would you seek to broaden the potential of engagement with schools with Latin programs, but not JCL chapters?

2nd Vice President: The Second Vice-President organizes spirit and service projects. What is your vision for spirit at National Convention? Further, how would you connect the state on various service projects throughout the year?

Parliamentarian: The CAJCL Constitution is the soul of the organization as a whole and has guided it to heights of success. What, if any, amendments and changes would you make to the constitution? How would you streamline the election process?

Historian: Pictures capture the pure spirit of the JCL. How would you design a scrapbook, video, or other materials to capture this immense spirit? What qualities prepare you for this unique role?

Secretary: The Secretary is the engine of transparency for CAJCL, which is accomplished by routinely publishing minutes. What other measures would you employ to ensure public engagement? Additionally, what experience do you have with regard to these duties?

Northern Representative: The position of Northern Representative is event-centered. What ideas do you have for Ludi? Further, please detail your event-planning experience.

Southern Representative: The position of Southern Representative is event-centered. What ideas do you have for SCRAM? Further, please detail your event-planning experience.

Appointed Positions:

Nuntius Editor: A critical part of the Nuntius Editor's job is being creative with new articles, layouts, and designs. What vision would you bring to the Nuntius and how would you make it reality?

Webmaster: Communication is crucial to being CJCL Webmaster. What improvements would you suggest to the CAJCL website? Further, how would you communicate and cooperate with fellow officers to update website with their content regularly?

NJCL Candidates:

National Office carries great significance. What has prepared you to seek National Office and what expertise do you possess in your desired position?
