

CASCL Winter Letter of the League

January 2024

Salvete omnes!

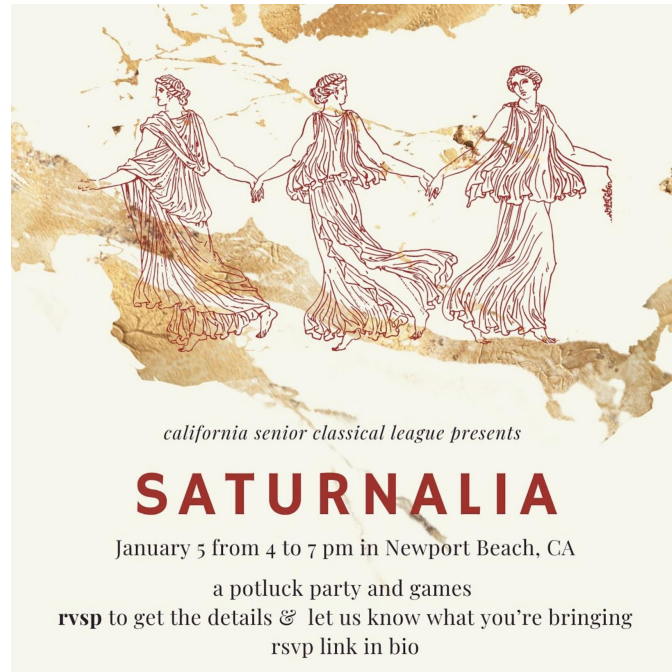

Felix sit annus novus! This fall, the omnipresent CASCL had a blast as it supported the CAJCL Regional Conventions, Ludi and SCRAMulum at St. Francis and Loyola High School, respectively. This spring, the omniscient and indispensable CASCL returns to Menlo School in Atherton, CA for an in-person State Convention. As we return to a greater sense of normalcy, we will need YOUR help! But first, join us THIS FRIDAY for our Winter Potluck in Newport Beach, CA.

THIS FRIDAY! SoCal WINTER POTLUCK

The 2023-24 CASCL Executive Board invites you to a Winter Potluck and Saturnalia Party THIS FRIDAY, January 5, 2024 at 4:00 PM. The event will be held at an undisclosed location in Newport Beach, CA.

In keeping with the tradition of the ancient Roman people, we plan to eat lots of food, play games, and share tales with optional praise to Saturn. We hope to see many of you there for the celebration of the season! 🤪 For additional details, RSVP HERE today.

If you have other ideas for future social events, please email the Executive Board at scl@cajcl.org.

ACL MEMBERSHIP

In order to vote in the upcoming NSCL Advisor elections in February 2024, you need to be an American Classical League (ACL) member. This is separate from your NSCL membership. Full-time graduate or undergraduate students are eligible for the Student Membership Category at the rate of $25. To read more about the benefits of an ACL Membership, visit the Benefits of Membership page.
