Letter from the Editor

SALVĒTE CAJCL!

I'm so excited to share the first Nuntius Californiensis publication of 2021 with you all! As we continue to adjust to an ever-changing new normal, a new semester, and a new year, let's take a look back at the amazing events and accomplishments since October of 2020 and look ahead at what CAJCL has in store for us in the coming months...

In this issue, you can relive some of the highlights from Ludi and S.C.R.A.M. and learn about everything State Convention has in store for us this year! Make sure you read all the announcements to stay up to date on upcoming dates for elections and the CAJCL scholarship or learn about fun services like the Flickr page and the JCL Book Project! You can find out what 2021 has in store for you by checking out your horoscope, and you can learn some fun tips and recipes in the Classical creativity corner.

As always, if you would like to contribute to the next edition of the Nuntius, feel free to email nuntius@cajcl.org. Happy reading omnēs!

Grātiās!

Do you want to view CAJCL photos from last year and this year? Did you attend Ludi or SCRAM and want to watch the recap videos made by Historian Sadie Almgren? If so, then check out the CAJCL Flickr page!

Share your JCL Chapter's service projects by submitting to the Service Spotlight! Each month, the winner will be posted on the CAJCL social media pages to highlight your efforts. The deadline is the first of each month. Use this link to submit!

Announcements

CaRCeR 2021 will be held on March 6th from 9:30 A.M. – 1:00 P.M. as a combined event between both NorCal and SoCal. Check out the CaRCeR page on the cajcl website to learn more.

Have you heard about JCLive? If you haven't, JCLive is a live stream that's hosted every Monday from 5–6 pm PST on the NJCL youtube page! It features Classics content, NJCL updates, guest speakers, and monthly online Certamen.

Do you have a JCL memory to share that you would like to be remembered forever? If so, then make sure to submit your story to the JCL Book Project! To learn more go to www.bit.ly/JCLbookproject. The deadline has been extended to March 15!

Are you a 12th grade JCL member? Then, think about applying for a CAJCL scholarship. Scholarships are paid out by CAJCL upon receipt of a college transcript that shows completion of one year of Latin and/or Greek language courses. The deadline is March 20. Use the Scholarships page on the cajcl website to apply!

REGIONAL CONVENTIONS

LUDI & SCRAM

LUDI NOVEMBRES

Cara Holden ~ CAJCL Northern Rep

On Saturday, November 14, 2020, JCL members from all over Northern California came together within Miramonte's salmon-colored walls for the annual Ludi Novembres, ready to spe-ok, that's not exactly how it happened! Instead of getting up before the sunrise to embark on long bus rides, we Northern CAJCLers traveled to our nearest computers and logged on for the first-ever virtual Ludi, a day of online activities, workshops, academic contests, spirit, and more!

Separatim sed una

With the structure of virtual Ludi largely following that of an in-person event, the day began at 9 a.m. with the first General Assembly, broadcasted via YouTube Live, in which my fellow CAJCL officers and I welcomed attendees and shared announcements about the day to come. The accompanying live chat marked the first time students were actually encouraged to "talk" during a general assembly, to the excitement of all (especially Miramonte's Magister Davis)! Afterwards, attendees cleared any remaining morning grogginess by testing their knowledge in ten different subjects.

Thanks to dedicated SCL and parent Zoom hosts and energetic Miramonte student volunteers, JCLers got to choose from a wide variety of virtual activities throughout the day, ranging from fast-paced, witty Quiplash to the casual, social JCL Mixer. Apud Nos was one of the most popular events, in which countless sussimus players made their way to victory. Kahoot was also well-attended, with students using quick thinking and even quicker thumbs to contend for the coveted top three spots.

Beyond games, students had the opportunity to get creative by using household materials to make art pieces in the impromptu art contest and Roman temples in the STEM challenge. The Roman rap battle provided a different kind of creative outlet, and some passionate participants even made their way to a fast food drive-thru for the ultimate location to spit some bars. And although only five JCLers showed up to play freeze dance, the activity quickly turned into an Exegi rap listening party and dubious history lesson on Julius Caesar (for the magnificent 15 minutes that it continued). As always, certamen rounds were nothing short of fierce battles of knowledge and hyperbuzzing, with some lively 2020-related questions thrown in the mix

In the afternoon, attendees had the opportunity to choose from six different colloquia, including a discussion of the implicit bias in Roman and American sources on indigenous cultures by Miramonte's own Magistra Mullowney, excerpts from ARISTOS: THE MUSICAL, a musical adaptation of the Iliad, and a Q and A session with The Sportula, a group of Classics Graduate Students support Classics undergraduates and graduates in need with microgrants. With their newfound knowledge, JCLers tuned in to the last event of the day, General Assembly 2. After laughing at TikToks of students recreating the Birth of Venus and admiring creative fask mask designs that had been submitted to the mini spirit contest, Ludi participants sadly listened to the final announcements from the CAJCL officers. As the sun set on Ludi (literally), JCLers left wistful goodbye messages and promises to reconnect with their newfound friends at State Convention in the chat.

Ludi 2020 was a success! Everyone was able to access the schedule, no one typed anything inappropriate in the chat, and all the Zoom links worked (the most miraculous feat of all!). What's more, the enthusiasm and sense of community I felt from the over 400 Ludi attendees truly embodied the day's theme, Separatim Sed Una ("Apart But Together"). It was both a great pleasure and a great challenge to plan and share this event with you all in Northern California, and I am so grateful to have had this opportunity! Can't wait to Zoom with the CAJCL again for State Convention!

S.C.R.A.M. Southern California Amici Madness

Meghana Kristanson ~ CAJCL Southern Rep

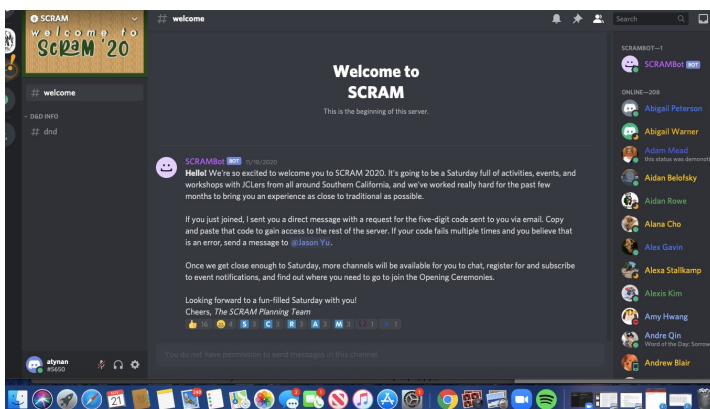

On November 21, 2020, 450 students virtually gathered to celebrate the Latin language and participate in exciting academics and activities at the first-ever online SCRAM!

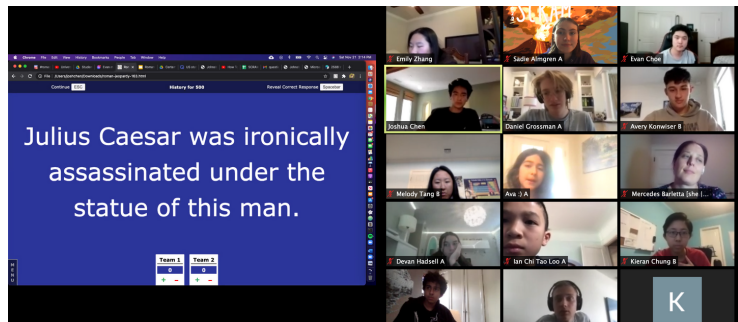

Throughout the day, there were an assortment of fun events, including e-sports, art submissions, academics events, and much more for JCLers of all interests. Some highlights included Certamen finals, which were live-streamed so other attendees could watch and cheer on different teams. We also had some exciting games of Roman Kahoot and Roman Jeopardy, in addition to Dungeons and Dragons, a new and very popular activity. The multiple video game tournaments throughout the day were well attended by JCL members and included friendly rounds of Among Us, Minecraft, Rocket League, and Valorant.

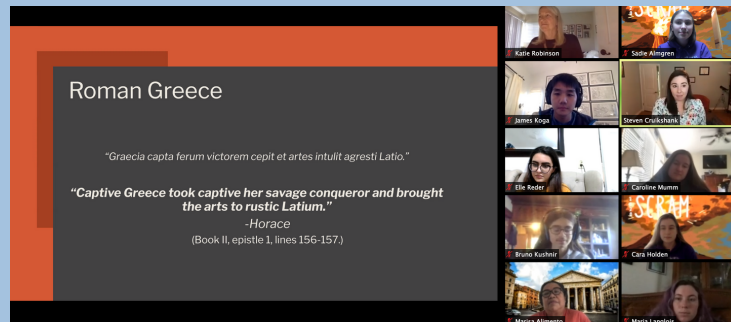

The workshops featured at SCRAM covered a wide variety of topics ranging from Ancient Greek and Roman archaeology to nuclear physics! The SCRAM Discord server was a huge success, and it was fantastic watching JCLers from all over Southern California chatting and bonding with each other.

Thank you to all the delegates who attend SCRAM! I hope everyone had just as much fun as myself and the rest of the University High board! We loved planning the event and can't wait to see everyone at State Convention!

AN UPDATE ON STATE CONVENTION

Sonia Agarwal & Ahna Kim ~ CAJCL Convention Presidents

Salvete Omnes! For the past few months Menlo JCL has been busy planning the first ever virtual State Convention. Although we wish we could welcome you all to our campus this year, we are excited to host you virtually on April 9th-10th over Zoom.

This year's event will feature virtual sports competitions, That's Entertainment, Escape Rooms, Kahoots, STEM challenge, and many more. We are also excited to have Apud Nōs, virtual scavenger hunts, and Roman Speed Dating.

Menlo JCL has been working hard throughout the year to test all the activities to ensure that they are both fun and engaging in the virtual format.

Registration for Convention is due March 25th and deadlines for Pre-Convention contests can be found in the Convention Booklet. For more details about Convention, activities, and academic competitions check out the CAJCL website or the Menlo JCL website for all necessary links.

Gratias maximas vobis agimus!

CALLING ALL CHAPTERS!

Ava Tynan ~ CAJCL 1st VP

Salvete Omnes! It is approaching the best time of the year: the 2021 CAJCL State Convention Publicity Contest! To prepare, I want to give you all a bit more information about the contest and provide some suggestions for your chapter's submissions.

This year all submissions must be emailed to firstvp@cajcl.org by April 1st, and the entries will be judged in either the middle school or high school division. The publicity contest also has seven categories: media, school affiliated media, school affiliated signs posted outside of school, posters at school, best club swag, best recruitment presentation, and miscellaneous. Each chapter will be able to submit one entry per category, but you do not have to submit to all categories.

I know with our unusual school year it has been harder to work on publicity, but there are still awesome ways to promote JCL virtually! For example, my school has created online posters that we submitted to our school's weekly news report and posted them on our Canvas page. In this way, we are able to promote our JCL chapter events to the broader Latin community at our school.

Another great publicity submission for the school affiliated media category could be if a JCL student wrote an article promoting Latin in their school's newspaper or maybe your JCL chapter was featured on your school's Instagram page. Your chapter could also create a JCL chapter themed face mask for the best club swag category.

I cannot wait to see all of the amazing publicity work the CAJCL chapters have done this year! Please reach out to me at firstvp@cajcl.org with any questions you may have about the contest. Gratias!

Sadie Almgren ~ CAJCL Historian

Howdy, amici!

I hope y'all are staying safe and healthy! It is my responsibility and privilege, as CAJCL historian, to create California's state scrapbook! I really want to make the scrapbook more of a collaborative effort among CAJCLers so I encourage you to submit! If you want to submit, please draw flowers or a flower, it can be any kind of flower, with any colors, and in any art style you want! I would prefer digital art, but scans of traditional art is great as well! Please email your submissions to historian@cajcl.org by MARCH 15! I really look forward to including your art in the scrapbook and please don't hesitate to submit or reach out with any questions! As always, please submit to the Monthly locus (meme) Contest and Photo of the Month Contest! Submission forms can be found at cajcl.org under "Online Contests"! Thank you for all of your awesome submissions thus far!

JANUARY BOARD MEETING

California Senior Classical League Election Information for Graduating Seniors (aka "Slashers")

To run for an office, all you need to do is attend the CASCL's nomination meeting at State Convention in the spring. You can have a friend nominate you or you can self-nominate. Then, you'll speak briefly to the other attendees about why you think you'd be a good fit for the SCL office you're seeking.

You don't need to register in advance to run, or do any sort of campaigning. The only prerequisite for seeking office is joining the SCL, which you can do at this link or by emailing scl@cajcl.org.

You do NOT need to be running for office to attend this meeting, and we encourage all slashers to come a) see how the election process works, b) support your friends, c) cast votes, and d) meet other SCLers!

Election Information (from Constitution, last amended 5/1/2020)

- Elections shall occur for each office in the order in which the offices are listed in the Constitution, with winners being announced for each office before election for the next office begins. (art. III, § 2)
- Dropping Down: An unsuccessful candidate may be nominated for another office at the election. Each candidate so nominated may then speak on [their] own behalf for up to two minutes." (art. III, § 2.A)
- The members shall vote by secret ballot. (art. III, § 3)
- Election shall occur by simple majority. (art. III, § 3.A)

Officer Information:

The offices of President and Vice-President are open to students who have been in SCL for one year. Slashers are eligible to run for Secretary, Webmaster, JCL Liaison, or Parliamentarian. The duties of each are outlined below:

Secretary (from Constitution, last amended 5/1/2020)

1. Carefully record all proceedings of the meetings of the membership and the Executive Board, and circulate these minutes to each officer by the next meeting
2. Maintain any business records or other official documents in good order
3. Maintain, in conjunction with the Vice-President, the roll of members and alumni
4. Prepare an ongoing historical record of the CASCL
5. Make any document or record available to any member upon request;
6. In conjunction with the Vice-President, appoint members to organize and oversee Ludi and other events at the annual CAJCL state convention.

Webmaster (from Constitution, last amended 5/1/2020)

1. Maintain the CASCL official website, which must include at a minimum the constitution & bylaws, contact addresses for each officer, meeting minutes, meeting schedules, and links to the national organization
2. In conjunction with the secretary, maintain meeting minutes online;
3. In conjunction with the president, maintain upcoming meeting and events schedules online
4. In conjunction with the vice-president, maintain officer contact information and membership guidelines online;
5. Publicize the website by adding our URL to search engines;
6. Not change the URL of the CSCL Web site without a majority vote of the executive board.
7. Regularly update and maintain a history of the CASCL by taking photos at CASCL and CAJCL Events, posting photos of CASCL, and by any means deemed suitable by the President

JCL Liaison (from Constitution, last amended 5/1/2020)

1. Coordinate with other officers to promote membership
2. Propose suggestions for increasing engagement of “Slasher” members
3. Coordinate with other officers outreach to drive recruitment and retention of members

Parliamentarian (new position)

1. Oversee the election process
2. Propose constitutional amendments
3. Assist the Secretary in the maintenance of membership rolls

Final Note

Serving on the Board is a great experience, an opportunity to meet cool people, and a fun way to stay involved with the spirit of JCL in college. If you have any questions, please send them to scl@cajcl.org!

Libum Recipe

LET'S MAKE SOME LIBUM!

Libum was a sacrificial cake offered to the household spirits, but the Romans ate it as well. The following recipe is from the book De Agri Cultura by Cato the Elder, who was a consul, statesman, and soldier.

Cato writes to "Libum hoc modo facito. Casei P. II bene disterat in mortario. Ubi bene distriverit, farinae siligineae libram aut, si voles tenerius esse, selibram similaginis eodem indito permiscetoque cum caseo bene. Ovum unum addito et una permisceto bene. Inde panem facito, folia subdito, in foco caldo sub testu coquito leniter."

Thankfully, we have an English translation for everyone. Here's how to make Cato the Elder's Libum:

INGREDIENTS

- 1/2 cup plain all-purpose flour
- 1 cup ricotta cheese
- 1 egg, beaten
- bay leaves
- 1/2 cup clear honey

DIRECTIONS

1. Sift the flour in a mixing bowl.
2. Beat the cheese until soft, stir into the flour.
3. Add the beaten egg to the flour/cheese mixture, forming a soft dough.
4. Divide the dough into four and shape each piece into a bun.
5. Place on a greased baking tray with a fresh bay leaf underneath.
6. Heat the oven to 375F/190C. Bake for 35-40 minutes until golden brown.
7. Warm the honey, pour into a flat plate, and place the buns on it to rest until the honey is absorbed.

Yoga and Stola Tips

By: Josh Gill and
Jeffrey Ling

How to Make a Toga or Stola

1

Classic Toga - Drape the sheet over the front of one shoulder. Then from behind, wrap the sheet around yourself multiple times. Toss the remaining end of the sheet over your shoulder and pin it to the draped side.

2

Classic Stola - Fold a sheet lengthwise and sew the straight end to make a tube. Sew two straps at the top of the tube as holes for your arms and head.

3

Empire Waist - Wrap the sheet around your chest and under your arms. Tuck one of the top ends of the sheet into the toga. Tie a rope or belt around your waste to secure the sheet.

4

Halter Style - Wrap the sheet around you in the front like a towel and leave a few feet of one corner of the sheet loose. Twist the remaining feet of the sheet like a rope and wrap it around your neck. Tie and pin the twisted fabric at the top of the sheet.

DIY Toga and Stola Tips

1

Fabric Tips! Use a white or neutral colored sheet. You can also cut a piece of white fabric. Fold the material in half lengthwise before you start wrapping your toga or stola. The key is to make the sheet narrower and not shorter.

2

Cingulum Tips! Use any type of thin rope, cording, ribbon or small piece of fabric as a belt. Wrap it around your waist two to four times. Try to make it gold or bright and colorful to pop out alongside the neutral colored sheet.

3

Palla and Pallium Tips! If you want to add an additional layer to your toga or stole, use a different colored sheet or fabric for your palla or pallium. Wrap the material around one shoulder and pin or tie the material underneath your opposite arm.

4

Accessorizing Tips! Add to your outfit by wearing a laurel crown in your hair or putting some sandals on. Don't be afraid to make your toga or stola colorful. You can add appropriate accessories, like buttons and ribbons to compliment your outfit, but give them some color, particularly purple and gold!

Aries

March 21 - April 19

2021 is a great year for building foundations and consolidating achievements. A major crossroads now brings you into a more aligned point of independence and you can now make major strides forward. Stand up for what you want, what you believe in, and what you actually feel most driven toward accomplishing on a daily basis. The most important piece of advice this year is to always bet on yourself at the end of the day!

April 20 - May 20

Your sign has so much to look forward to in 2021. Your famous "never give up attitude" sets you apart from the crowd! In fact, you're probably entering this year with far more determination than ever. Yes, there's still so much to do in all realms of your life, but you're the successful Bull who's always ready to hold your ground and wait, and your defiance is astounding. Expect cosmic rewards if you follow your true calling, and stay true to your most authentic self.

Gemini

May 21 - June 20

Your sign of the Twins is going into 2021 with a fresh outlook and plenty of brilliant moments. There will be plenty of sudden and fated events directly affecting you in a positive way. If you feel the need to make a change and are ready to jump into your destiny, buckle up and enjoy the ride. You've got a ton going for you in 2021! Following and trusting your intuitive hunches will be exactly the right move!

June 21 - July 22

Welcome to a fabulous new year, Cancer! You're going to experience some massive movement in areas of your life that once felt locked into place. This year will give you a new idea of what it means to release karma and reclaim your own sense of authority. You're diving and trekking into areas of life that will focus you on your own intellectual needs.

Cancer

Leo

July 23 - August 22

All Leos will have plenty of reasons to celebrate in 2021. Leos will look at 2021 as a time when they were required to become much clearer about what they wanted and how they wished to get it. With such lovely cosmic alignments encouraging personal growth and happiness, you'll need to temper the blessings as you face the obstacles that are sure to also manifest as well. This is because the Universe wants to help all Leos grow and become stronger than ever before.

August 23 - September 22

Welcome to 2021, Virgo, a year that will shift the path before your feet. You'll experience a great deal of growth as you assess where you are now and where you still wish to go. The year ahead will be filled with opportunities for personal growth, health, happiness, love, friendships, and success, so expect to be quite busy! While there may be some challenges, there will still be blessings. Peer into what the stars predict for your year ahead!

Virgo

Libra

September 23 - October 22

You are ready to take on 2021 in style! February kicks off with the moon in your sign, sweet Libra, and you'll be asked to look at your own personal balance. It's a time for you to reconnect with your ambition and drive to make positive changes this time around the sun. Even so, don't forget to find time to connect with siblings or childhood friends.

October 23 - November 21

You've been waiting for the right time to make some changes, dear Scorpion, and the stars align in 2021 to do just that. You'll be ready to take on a new way of thinking, and to communicate these shifts to others. This will also be the perfect time to pick up a new hobby or area of study. Remember to stay alert and discerning in all facets of your life, and you will come out on top!

Scorpio

Sagittarius

November 22 - December 21

The beginning of the year will bring unique new ideas to the forefront of your mind. This energy hits you on a cerebral level, creating a thirst for information that will leave you wanting to carve out a new path toward knowledge. 2021 is sure to bring you a big dose of personal evolution and perhaps even brilliance, so boldly face any head-on challenges or lessons that the universe sends your way. You'll be more than ready for a new adventure!

December 22 - January 19

Capricorn

Use the energy in 2021 to set intentions around goals and ways to walk your highest path. Your mind will be shooting off new ideas and thoughts at lightning speed, and much of spring will find you focused on your home life and fun, and your creative juices will be flowing. Avoid overworking yourself in 2021, dear Sea Goat. Success is bound to come your way, but your heart and mind need to be replenished just like everyone else's.

Aquarius

January 20 - February 18

Any bumps in the road should be taken in stride on this day, because any challenges you face can only contribute to your personal evolution. Your potential for growth is astronomical this year, so each time the universe throws you a lesson, take it in stride. You have a lot of strong planetary placements this year, and they can help you manifest your wildest dreams. Don't forget to ask the universe for help when you need it, and don't be afraid of your own success!

February 19 - March 20

Piscis

You're the dreamiest sign in the zodiac, lovely Pisces, with an abundance of compassion and kindness. Just like every other year, you'll be confronted with new lessons on how to navigate the real world without sacrificing your delicate disposition. Luckily, you'll also receive plenty of opportunities to connect with truly good people. As the sign of the Fish, you know how to move with the tides, lovely Pisces.

A GUIDE TO MASK USE

Before putting on a mask, clean hands with alcohol-based hand rub or soap and water.

Cover mouth and nose with mask and make sure there are no gaps between your face and the mask.

Replace the mask with a new one as soon as it is damp and do not re-use single-use masks.

To remove the mask: remove it from behind (do not touch the front of mask); discard immediately in a closed bin or set aside to wash; clean hands with alcohol-based hand rub or soap and water.
