

Salvete, Omnes!

Loyola High School is hosting SCRAMulum* on October 28. Please go over the materials with your students, since many students are still getting used to in-person convention and this year our abbreviated event has several changes. Please reach out to the Loyola sponsors with any questions (Fred Muth: fmuth@loyolahs.edu Teri Kawamata tkawamata@loyolahs.edu).

*Southern California Amici Madness (using less than usual madness)

If you notice that a colleague has not received this email, please forward it to them and CC us, so we can add them to our mailing list.
